

USANA'S GINA BRESCIANI RECEIVES PRESTIGIOUS HONOR FROM DSA OF CANADA

One of Only 35 People to Receive Diamond Jubilee Medal

SALT LAKE CITY – October 22, 2012 – USANA Health Sciences, Inc. (NYSE: USNA), a global nutritional company, is proud to announce that its Director of Canadian Operations, Gina Bresciani is one of only 35 people to receive a Diamond Jubilee Medal from the Direct Sellers Association of Canada (DSA). The prestigious honor was awarded to those who have made a significant contribution to the growth and development of the direct-selling industry in Canada, and is in commemoration of the 60th anniversary of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II's accession to the throne as Queen of Canada.

“To be acknowledged by the DSA is a huge accomplishment and honor,” said Dan Macuga, USANA's chief communications officer. “We are proud of Gina's achievements and admire her dedication to USANA, the Canadian field, and for actively engaging herself within the direct-selling industry.”

Gina has worked for USANA for more than seven years, overseeing and managing multiple departments in the Canada office and providing support to USANA's Canadian distributors. She is also an active member of the DSA, currently serving as Chair of the Member Services Committee and is on the Direct Selling Education Foundation board (DSEF). In the past, she served on the DSA's board of directors (2008 to 2012), and received the DSA Distinguished Service Award in 2011.

“I am very proud and excited to be receiving this award,” said Gina. “I have been working with the DSA since I started with USANA, and to be recognized in such a way, by people I admire and respect, is truly an honor.”
