USANA Congratulates Sponsored Olympians on Medal Performances

SALT LAKE CITY—(BUSINESS WIRE)—March 3, 2010—USANA Health Sciences, Inc. (NASDAQ: USNA) would like to congratulate all of the USANA-sponsored Olympians for their outstanding performances at the 2010 Vancouver Winter Games.

USANA-sponsored athletes from the United States, Canada, and the United Kingdom won 22 medals, including six gold. If “Team USANA” were a country, it would rank fifth overall; only four countries — the U.S., Germany, Canada, and Norway — out of the 82 competing earned more.

“USANA is extremely proud of the dedication and performance of its sponsored athletes,” said Mark Wilson, USANA Executive Vice President of Sales. “Athletes place a high priority on their health and nutrition, and USANA is honored to be trusted by such world-class performers.”

The USANA-sponsored athletes competing in Vancouver consisted of the following individuals and teams:

- Jennifer Heil, Canada Freestyle Moguls
- Julia Murray, Canada Ski Cross
- Jennifer Botterill, Canada Women’s Ice Hockey
- Adam Pengilly, Great Britain Skeleton
- Speed Skating Canada
- US Speedskating
- USA Luge
- Biathlon Canada
- Cross Country Canada
- Great Britain Short Track Speed Skating Team
